About Me

Being a problem solver, my satisfaction of a job I perform is tightly bound with clean and neat design of systems and precise logical implementations. Creative thinking and attention to detail are my underline strengths. Switching my programming career to front-end development is a long-awaited transition. Having been a backend software engineer for 3+ years, I am now aspiring to become a front-end developer and I have taught myself front-end programming with JavaScript, HTML, CSS and ReactJS.

Below you will find projects I have completed that showcase my skills and general background in developing software.
